Historical Event

Primary Source:
- Media Accounts: created at the time of an event
- Photographs of a historical event
- Artifacts created or used during a historical event
- Official or legal documents created at the time of an event
- First-hand accounts of a historical event from someone who witnessed it

Secondary Source:
- Book about a historical event based on primary sources and secondary sources
- Journal article about a historical event based on primary and secondary sources
- Paper about a historical event written by a student based on primary and secondary sources

Tertiary Source:
- Encyclopedia (or other reference work) article about a historical event
- Video or documentary about a historical event
- Book or article about a historical event that is not based on primary sources
- Educational website about a historical event
- Textbook